Pioneer, forerunner, legend—Dallas Holm is an icon of Christian music. Dallas has earned his influence in today's Christian music throughout 40 years of writing, singing and ministry in more than 3,000 concerts in every state in the USA, as well as many countries abroad. His 37 recordings have garnered gold records, multiple Dove awards, Grammy nominations, number one songs, and countless accolades. Holm's creativity and diversity offer everything from inspirational to blues, from country to reggae. Whatever the style, it all points to Christ and the Cross.

Concert is courtesy of Buford Media Group and Breakfast is sponsored by EWTN, TBN Networks and JonesNCTI.

Christians in Communications is an organization designed to provide Christians affiliated with the communications industry an opportunity for fellowship with other Christians.
